

Drawing and Sketching

Unlock your hidden drawing talent.

The class is suitable for people who –

- Have never drawn and have an interest in learning
- Wish to rekindle skills they feel they have forgotten
- Just enjoy drawing and wish to attend to draw still-lives.

Different levels of skill are catered for.

Classes involve introduction to use of pencil, tone and composition using still life as source.

There will be one class dealing with drawing and one with landscape.

Also introductions to different mediums of drawing – inks, charcoal and pastels, throughout the term.

First night requirements – 2B pencil and cartridge paper.