

LIFE DRAWING CLASS

Tutor: Roxanne Fitzmaurice.

This class will take place in Marino College Fairview. The sessions will be in a large Art Room with a professional model, the space is bright with a relaxed atmosphere. The students will learn to work directly from a model, which will improve their observational and drawing skills. Students may use a range of media under the direction of Roxanne.

All skill levels welcome.

The first evening paper and drawing materials will be supplied. This class will be small, limited to a maximum of 12 students and it will be a great chance to have access to a professional model, under the guidance of an experienced artist.
